THEME

In turning the leaves of our high school calendar we are reminded that we are face-to-face with a big date—the Fiftieth Anniversary of the Twentieth Century. Fifty years have gone; fifty years are to be. Shaped by science and invention, life in this twentieth century has met many grave problems and experienced numerous social changes. As has been true in each period of our national life, some lasting principles have appeared. Like threads they tie these earlier years to the present. They reach into the future and tie the events of tomorrow to those of today.

As we stand at the archway of mid-century, looking back upon principles that have affected the development of our nation and the lives of her citizens, we are proud and ambitious. The past has been good to us. Surely the future will be as kind.

DEDICATION

Your unfailing efforts, your untiring patience, your ready wit have been an inspiration to us. Your understanding of our problems and your personal interest in our small affairs have made us love you. So it is with appreciation and gratitude that we dedicate this, the 1950 Hi-ways, to you, MISS CUE MOSELEY.

C-TEAM

CHARLES PYRON—Co-Captain and a "meanie."
EMORY JENKS—Could play either halfback or quarterback and plenty good at both.

KEN MALSBERGER—Co-Captain and member of All-region team.

GORDON MALLOY—Mr. "All State" two years in a row.
JIM OWENS—He will play a lot of ball next year.
TED ECHOLS—"Speed Merchant"; Fastest back in state.
DON SMITH—A boy who came into his own after being shifted to guard.

JIM DREGER—Defensive standout and no "slouch" on offense.

JOE FORD—Exceptional punter and a fine end.
BILLY MITCHELL—Pass snagging expert.
"CHICKEN" GRANT—Could really run those kickoffs back.
RALPH BULLARD—Big and fast; smashed many an opponent's back.

JERRY GRIFFIN—Just a freshman, future All-State.
HENRY PALMER—A guard who was hard to knock down.
CARL VANN—One of the best defensive ends we had.
BOB RANDOLPH—Bob and Charlie gave us best guards N.F.'s had in a long time.

BOB TRUNDLE—Big Bob was "scrappiest" man on team.
FREDDIE WATKINS—A center who could plug those holes.

DREW LIDDELL—All-Region and rounded off a big corps of tackles.

BILL KNIGHT—Came into spotlight late in season as a sensational defense end.

JACK COLEBURN—Another defensive ace and hard as a rock.

ARTHUR NEWTON—Hurt by injuries but still a first class end.

ED HAMILTON—"Bones" was our "Field General" and a real hustler.

JIM BRADFORD—"Mercury Heeled" and hard to stop.
BOB TURNER—Best punter in the state.
THORNE WINTER—Plunging fullback with speed to spare.

NEWTON HAMILTON BRADFORD TURNER WINTER

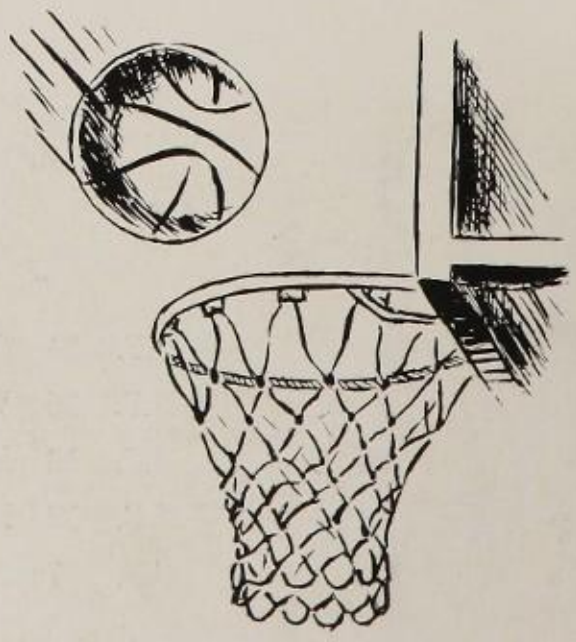
Girls' Basketball

Managers: Lucy Filber and Sue Davis



JEANNE DELANEY—As guard or forward she's always a star; just ask our opponents—she gave them a jar.

ANN RARY—Our four-letter girl is on the ball; at controlling the backboard she tops them all.

PATSY ROBINSON—When she guards you, you get no rest, for at intercepting passes she's the best.

ELAINE van DELDEN—She shoots from the front and from the side; she makes so many points her guards want to hide.

BEVO QUILLIAN—She's spirited, fast and really a whiz. As a guard she's one of the best there is.

ETHELIND ROBERTS—She's always in there fighting hard; that's why she's such a real good guard.

PAT PAYNE—She's the star of our team, and we love her, that we mean. When she's gone we'll be sad, because she's the best we've ever had.

PAYNE — BRIGHT — ROBERTS | van DELDEN — DELANEY — ROWSEY | RARY — MOBLEY — QUILLIAN | ROBINSON — MORRIS — TRIPP

THINKING

When I am tired at night
Of working,
And playing,
And talking,
And things in general
And can't sleep,
I go into my mind and shut the door
Behind me.
There I find everything I want or need:
Yesterday,
Today,
Tomorrow, and tomorrow
And I find all kinds of treasures
That I never knew I had before:
Warm, soft things,
Like:
Half-remembered kisses,
Old Teddy-bears,
Funny little grins, rather crooked,
And a first bouquet of roses;
Dreams that puzzle me,
Odd remarks and side-ways glances,
Expressions, I can't understand,
And emotions that creep in and
Don't tell their names;
Hard, ugly, bitter things,
Like:
Broken promises,
Sharp, mean words, like jagged glass,
Disappointment,
And death, who wears two faces;
Funny things and funny people,
Like:
Little pups with big, big feet,
My grandad's fish stories,
And the redheaded boy who brings our paper;
And wonderful, awesome things,
Like:
Sitting in church, with God beside you,
Finding out you've learned to swim,
Music like an earthquake,
And death—who wears two faces.

SLEEP

Night is a giant flower
That springs from the great, warm
Heart of God,
Beckoning you, with its fragrance,
Into its velvet depths,
Where it is dark;
Then its silken petals close 'round you
To conceal you in your dreaming,
Only to open again in sunlight
And to fade—
And droop—
And die.

Death is a giant flower
That springs from the great, warm
Heart of God,
Beckoning you, with its silence,
Into its velvet depths,
Where it is dark;
Then its silken petals close 'round you
To conceal you in your dreaming
Never to open again in sunlight
Never to fade—
Or droop—
Or die—

The value of the telephone isn't just the calls you make. Sometimes the calls you receive are even more important. You'd miss a lot if the telephone wasn't there.

Just on calls you make, the telephone's a big bargain in convenience, security, success and good times. When you add the calls you receive, it's an even bigger value.

Stupe: "Fishing?"
Droop: "Nope, drowning worms."

Spectator: "Hey! Sit down in front!"
Drunk: "Don't be ridiclish. I don't bend that way."

A man in Chicago was grumbling about the heat. Said another, who had just returned from a trip through the south:

"Hot! Boy, you don't know what hot is. One day this week in Mississippi I saw a dog chasing a cat and they were both walking."

Roy C.: How's your insomnia?
Ralph B.: Worse! Can't even sleep when it's time to get up.

Taken from newspaper: Just broke up with my girl friend. Want someone to finish argyle socks.

Barber: "And how would you like your hair cut, sir?"
Wesley: "Off."
Barber: "Yes, I know, but what style?"
Wesley: "First, tell me your prices."
Barber: "Haircut 75c, shave, 35c."
Wesley: "Well, shave my hair off."

Mother (entering room unexpectedly): "Carol! Get right down from Frank's knee!"

Carol G.: "Nothing doing, Ma. I got here first."

The bottle of perfume that Willie sent was highly offensive to Millicent. Her thanks were so cold that they quarreled, I'm told, through that silly scent Willie sent Millicent.

Jane: "What's the matter, Joan? Why are you crying?"

Joan: "Dick didn't invite me to his party."

Jane: "But it's a stag party."

Joan: "Yes, I know! Boo Hoo!"

Two mind readers passed each other. One said, "You're feeling fine, how am I doing?"

An amateur sportsman spent the day in the woods with dog and gun but brought home no game. A friend twitted him for his failure.

"Didn't you shoot anything at all?"

"Well, I shot my dog."

"Why, was he mad?"

"He was pretty peeved about it."

Robber: "This is a stick-up; hand over your money!"

Citizen: "I've nothing, and my watch has only sentimental value."

Robber: "Fork it over. I feel like a good cry, anyway."
